TWENTY NINE PREPARATORY VOCALISES

PREFACE.

I recommend the daily use of these Exercises, particularly to Soprani and Mezzo-soprani singing a melodramatic repertory; because exercises of this kind promote length of respiration, and delay the deterioration and undue vibration (tremolo) of the voice.

Beginners should confine themselves to a regularly limited range, so as not to weaken the medium of the voice; and should extend their compass according to individual progress and development.

(1) A mental note, reminding the pupil, that on ceasing to sound the tone he should still continue expiration, and not make the deplorable mistake of beginners, by cutting it off short.
