My title was originally "Clog Dance." But my dear friend William Gair Rathbone (to whom the piece is dedicated) suggested the title "Handel in the Strand," because the music seemed to reflect both Handel and English musical comedy (the "Strand," a street in London, is the home of London musical comedy) as if jovial old Handel were careening down the Strand to the strains of modern English popular music.

Percy Aldridge Grainger

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Percy Grainger was born in Melbourne, Australia in 1882. In his adolescence he went to Germany with his mother on the proceeds of several recitals in Australia. In Germany he studied with Busoni. In 1901 he went to London, where he quickly became a well-known pianist. Grieg chose Grainger to play his piano concerto at the Leeds Festival in 1907. It was through Grieg's love of national music that Grainger became involved in the movement to recover English folk-songs. His arrangements of English, Irish, and Scottish folk-tunes have always been enormously successful. In 1914 Grainger settled in America. His compositions, whether for piano, chorus, orchestra or band, reflect his vitality and whimsy.
